I. To be read by the parent / legal guardian / child (latter if over 16 years of age)

Norfolk Centre for Young Musicians, a division of the Guildhall School of Music & Drama is owned by City of London Corporation.

NCYM uses and retains images (photographs, visual and audio recordings, videos etc.) of children and young people for promotional purposes, e.g. informing the public about services provided by NCYM. These images may appear in NCYM publications and/or websites including Facebook, Twitter and Instagram and in Guildhall School of Music & Drama publications and/or websites including Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

To comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 incorporating General Data Protection Regulations, permission is needed for Norfolk Centre for Young Musicians to use images of you/your child.

Please complete this form to indicate your consent. See over for full conditions.

Parental consent must be obtained for children under 16 years old. Young People aged over 16 may grant consent on their own behalf.

Conditions of use

- This form is valid for three years from the date of the signature on this consent form. Your consent will automatically expire after this time. NCYM will not re-use any images after this time, unless you are contacted to renew your consent.
- Your / your child's first name may be used alongside your/his/her image exclusively within the NCYM website and/or printed publications and Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, only if you have granted permission for this.
- No personal details will be displayed and no contact details of any person will be used in any NCYM publicity. This includes email and postal addresses, and telephone numbers.
- Your / your child's image and related personal information will not be given to third parties and will only be used by NCYM for promotional purposes.
- Please note that websites and social media can be seen throughout the world, and not just in the United Kingdom where UK law applies.
